

Political Signage

Political signs are permitted providing they comply with the following provisions:

Size shall not exceed two (2) feet in any dimension and shall not exceed four (4) square feet in area.

Displayed not more than forty-five (45) days before a duly authorized election date.

Signs shall be removed within five (5) days following the authorized general election date (or runoff date, if applicable) or within five (5) days of the candidate's or issue's election or defeat whichever comes first. Primary and general election dates shall be established by applicable federal, state, or local law. Said signs must otherwise follow applicable state law.
